

New Jersey's Do Not Call list and supporting legislation has been an overwhelming success.
The number of unwanted telephone solicitations in my household have dropped from several a week to NONE.

I would imagine that MY government would want to duplicate New Jersey's success, not break it .